

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP

EVIDENCE IN THE HUMAN SCIENCES

MAY 25-26, 2007

Sala Seminari - Biblioteca di Economia Walter Bigiavi
via Belle Arti 33, Bologna

Convenors:

Maria Carla Galavotti (Bologna) Roberto Scazzieri (Bologna)

FRIDAY 25 MAY

10 a.m.

MARIA CARLA GALAVOTTI (University of Bologna)
Opening remarks

MICHAEL JOFFE (Imperial College London)
What language can we use for causation?

JULIA MORTERA (3rd University of Rome)
Evaluating identification evidence

[1 p.m. Lunch]

2:30 p.m.

PAOLO GARBOLINO (IUAV Venice)
Naked statistics are not relevant evidence

PHILIP DAWID (University College London)
Teaching probability and statistics to Law students

RAFFAELLA CAMPANER (University of Bologna)
Evidence for causation in medicine

SATURDAY 26 MAY

10 a.m.

ALBERTO MURA (University of Sassari)
Applications of Bayesian decision theory to judicial evidence

DAVID LAGNADO (University College London)
Causal models in evidential reasoning

[12:30 p.m. Lunch]

Sponsored by

Alma Mater Studiorum

CIRESS – Interdisciplinary Centre of Epistemology and History of Science “Federigo Enriques”

Dipartimento di Filosofia dell’Università di
Bologna

Dipartimento di Filosofia dell’Università di Pisa

Institute of Advanced Study

Focus Group on “Dynamics of Human Knowledge”

PRIN Research Group on “Probability, Causal Structures and Intentional Processes”

Biblioteca “Walter Bigiavi”